

Mitry
Moussa

Attorney At Law

Syrian Arab Republic

Tel: +963 11 2311 031

Fax: +963 11 232 4047

Education:

LL.B, University of Damascus; LL.M, (DEA) in International Law, University of Orleans-Tours, France; Three semesters of US law courses, Florida College, Jacksonville, USA; LL.M, Banking and International Finance Law, University of London, UK; Doctorate Degree in International Contract, University of Tours, France.

Professional Experience:

1988–1990, Manager, King Food Store; 1992–1994, Legal Consultant Samide SA, Draveil, France; 2001 to date, Legal Advisor, petrol and gaz contracts, Syrian Petroleum Company. Since 1995 Mr. Mitry has been a Legal Advisor to the International Trade Centre – ICT in UNCTAD and WTO (for drafting Model Agreement for Contractual Joint Venture) and to the World Bank.

Mr. Mitry is a practising Attorney specialising in international contracts, petroleum law, arbitration, international trade law, banking law, trademarks and intellectual property, corporation, commercial law, IPO, project finance and joint venture issues. He is also an assistant professor at the Faculty of Law and Chairman of the Commercial Law Department, Damascus University.

Publications:

- International Contracts of Industrial Cooperation between Developed and Developing Parties
- Introduction in International Contracts
- Punishment, Comparative Studies
- Legal Rules for E-Banking
- The Acquisition of Technology in the Investment Law
- Arbitration as a Special Judicial System for Resolving Construction Disputes
- E-Legal Infrastructure for E-Business
- Project Finance – BOT Structure