

Salman
Dr. Mohammed Haitham

Asst. Prof. of Business Law and Ethics and Chair of Law Department
Abu Dhabi University

Tel: +971 2 501 5757
Fax: +971 2 501 5990

Education:

1991, LLB, Faculty of Law, Beirut Arab University, Lebanon; 2005, PhD, University of Portsmouth, UK.

Professional Experience:

1985–1991, Foreign Trade Centre – Ministry of Economic and Trade, Damascus; 1991–1992, Zureik and Associates, Damascus; 1992–1993, Saif Al-Addin Hitto Advocate Office, Damascus; 1994–1996, Ministry of Justice, Judicial Inspection Dept., Abu Dhabi, 1996–1997 Kurtha & Co Law Firm, Dubai; 1997–2004, Abu Dhabi Fund for Development, Abu Dhabi. Since 2005 Prof. Salman is Assist. Prof of Business Law and Ethics and Acting Chair of Law Department, Abu Dhabi University (ADU). He is currently responsible for establishing and developing the undergraduate law programmes with particular emphasis on the new UAE commercial laws and related practical areas.

Prof. Salman has recently made a number of international legal practice achievements in international business organizations, international joint ventures and international capital markets and loans, organized by International Bar Association with the College of Law of England and Wales. Most recently, Prof. Salman has been involved in establishing an international legal firm in Abu Dhabi in cooperation with SALANS".

Publications:

- Legal Aspects of Islamic Finance
- Recent Legal Reforms in GCC Commercial Laws
- American Free Trade Agreements with Gulf States
- Foreign Direct Investment in the UAE
- FDI Inflows to GCC
- The Role of GCC Countries in WTO

Memberships:

- International Bar Association, London
- Socio-legal Studies Association, Belfast
- Society of Legal Scholars, London