

Zagaris
Bruce

Attorney

Berliner, Corcoran & Rowe LLP

Washington, DC

Education:

Bruce Zagaris received a B.A, a L.L.M., and a J.D. from the George Washington University. He also received an L.L.M. from Stockholm University and from Free University in Brussels.

Professional Experience:

Mr. Zagaris has been practising law for over 30 years, along with various teaching engagements as an adjunct professor at four law schools in the US. He worked as a lawyer while residing in the Caribbean, Sweden, and Belgium. His practice has focused on Latin America and Europe.

He also has extensive experience speaking, and since 1989 has spoken approximately 8-15 times a year on anti-money laundering and related topics. Mr. Zagaris has been a board member of the Money Laundering Alert publication for over 20 years, and he has also served as chair of various legal organisations, including the Committee on International Criminal and National Security Law, Section of International Law, D.C. Bar; and the Committee on International Criminal Law, Criminal Justice Section.

Bruce Zagaris specialises in international tax and business, representation of foreign governments, litigation, including international and white collar crime, and matters on the regulation of money movement.

Publications:

Mr. Zagaris has published over 80 articles on international tax and business law and 6 books.